. ROSEWOOD LONDON SIGNATURE TEA BLEND.

A luxurious infusion that combines the highest quality Darjeeling tea leaves from the finest tea gardens, referred to as the 'Champagne of Teas' due its distinctive muscatel aroma and delicate character.

Soft rose petals introduce a graceful floral note, forming a fragrant and romantic base. Elderflower imparts a light, ethereal sweetness, while hibiscus introduce a refreshing tartness. A hint of vanilla completes the blend, delivering an elegant and creamy finish.

This blend captures the essence of refined indulgence and timeless sophistication.

Savouring in the experience, continue the ritual at home.

A true English classic, the original blend, which combines the earthiness of Sri Lankan tea, the maltiness of the Assam leaf, and the rarest of the three teas, an Indonesian black tea, which gives the slight smokiness taste.

Our premium Earl Grey combines black teas from Yunnan China and Ceylon, blended with the pure bergamot oil from Calabria, Italy known to produce the finest bergamot oil in the world.

L A P S A N G S O U C H O N G

The riper, larger Souchong leaves are harvested from the lower sections of the tea bushes, roasted before being delicately smoked over select pine wood. This process imparts a sharp smoky flavour with a subtle spicy undertone.

Legend has it that the origins of the tea dates back to the 15th century when a servant (Genmai) accidentally dropped a few grains of stolen rice hidden up his sleeve as he was pouring tea for his master.

The incomparable taste is characterised by the mildness of the Bancha and is ideally complemented by the pleasant, slightly sweet and nutty caramel note.

S E N C H A F U J I

Considered a rarity, this top class Japanese Gyokuro, known as “Dew of a Pearl”, has a deep green, slightly shining colour and gives off a noble, strong flavour with a hint of sweetness, an impressive mixture of tender mildness and an intense, highly aromatic taste.

As part of the prestigious Nobel Tea Chest collection curated by the London Tea Exchange, this tea was specially selected to represent Japan at the behest of His Majesty Emperor Akihito. Typically reserved only for state visits or guests at the Emperor's palace, it remains a rarity, savoured by very few. Renowned for its unparalleled taste and distinctive character, this green tea is unlike any other.

This tea was served by successive Emperors within the Forbidden Palace in Beijing (China). The tea was kept secret over generations and was seen as one of the true mysteries of ancient China. The recipe of this tea was lost for hundreds of years. London Tea Exchange spent almost two decades in research and development in unearthing the secret. Due to the historic nature of this tea London Tea Exchange only offers it to a select few families globally.

P I N K T R O P I C S

The flavor of ripe fruits promises a tropical indulgence like no other.

Sun-ripened fresh guava, juicy mango and crisp apple pieces come together in perfect harmony, while pink cornflower blossoms add a gentle floral touch to this sun-kissed blend. A sweet and blissful remedy that will not disappoint.

A privilege for the members of the Royal Courts and close associates of the palace including high ranking Buddhist monks throughout history. The taste is mild with a hint of Papaya and an underlying spiciness.

H U A N G Y A

Exclusively sourced for London Tea Exchange, the production method of the huang ya is a closely guarded secret. Only three yellow teas survive today. Out of the three the rarest of them all is the Huang Ya Yellow Tea. Typically sweet, with notes of roasted nuts, herbs and honey.

Yellow tea is a increasingly rare variaty of tea.

The process of making yellow tea has an added step of encasing & sweltering giving the leaves a slightly yellow colour.

Grown in the mountains of southeast China. The leaves are mixed up to six times with fresh, delicately smelling jasmine blossoms, then sieved and rolled by hand to produce the Oolong. The leaf encloses the fine jasmine aroma and only sets it free during brewing.

M I L K O O L O N G

Probably one of the most unusual tea specialities in terms of production as well as character is produced almost entirely by hand in the Province of Fujian. Immediately after withering the still moist leaves are placed in an enclosed room where milk water (whey) is steamed. The steam conserves the pretty, lightly olive-green leaf and cup colour and invokes the distinct creamy scent and taste.
