

Afternoon Tea

AT FORTNUM & MASON

Our Diamond Jubilee Tea Salon takes its name from a very special visitor, Queen Elizabeth II – who formally opened the room in 2012, alongside her daughter-in-law, HM Queen Camilla and her granddaughter-in-law, Catherine, The Princess of Wales.

*As the clock in the boughs chimed a musical four,
A scurrying squirrel climbed a branch, for a tour –
Of a tree like no other, an impossible sight
Filled with flora and fauna, all merry and bright.*

*“Welcome to Christmas,” said the robin at his ear,
“Would you like the next swing, on our grand chandelier?”
But the overwhelmed chap simply gazed on in wonder,
As two happy blackbirds pulled a cracker asunder.*

*“But how,” said the squirrel, “did this all come about?”
“Who brews all of the tea, pouring out of that spout?”
And unfurling her feathers, the peacock recited:
“It’s Christmas at Fortnum’s, and all are invited!”*

Afternoon Tea

Famous teas and still-warm scones.
Just-baked cakes and extraordinary sandwiches.
Forever exceptional service in the timelessly elegant surroundings of our Diamond Jubilee Tea Salon.

Whether you're joining us for the first time or Piccadilly is your home-from-home, Afternoon Tea at Fortnum's has been our most delicious tradition for generations, and with the festive season upon us, why not enjoy a pot of our Christmas Tea? A warming blend of cocoa nibs, zesty clementine and soothing yuletide spices awaits. Let the joyful pouring begin.

We'd love to see photos of your Afternoon Tea experience.

Savoury Afternoon Tea

At Fortnum & Mason, we've always recognised the importance of tea. Since our earliest days, we've known it's far more than just a humble thing to sip.

This festive season, Fortnum's have collaborated with Hong Kong's tea-inspired cocktail bar Tell Camellia, bringing together our 300 years of tea heritage and their contemporary cocktail artistry. Celebrating the fusion of traditional tea ceremonies with craft cocktails, Tell Camellia have created the Merrycha made with our very own Christmas Tea and perfectly complementing the flavours of our Savoury Afternoon Tea.

High Tea

For some, the joy of tea lies in the endless variations and idiosyncrasies of different estates, harvests and regions. From the malty robustness of a second flush Assam, to the gently-roasted savoury flavour of a rare Chinese Long Jing, all the way to the boldness of our long-reigning Royal Blend, there's a world of tea to discover at Fortnum's – and our Tea Salon is the perfect place to begin your next exploration. With the seasonal addition of our festive Christmas Tea, you can sample a range of teas tableside with one of our expertTearista's. A world of tea awaits...

Vegetarian Afternoon Tea

Before the short, stout, handle-and-spouted teapot of today, there was just a bowl; a simple clay Chinese vessel that was made to hold and infuse tea leaves in hot water, before it was poured through a hole or strainer. It took until the 16th century for the first actual teapot to appear, in Yixing, China: a town now famed for its teapots.

Afternoon Tea Made Without Gluten

In tea, just as in wine, terroir is all – that unique combination of climate, soil and altitude that together create the diverse and distinctive flavour profiles of different teas across the world. From the crispness of an exceptional Darjeeling, to the tropical character of a fantastic Yunnan, it's this all-important terroir that gives tea its unique personality and charm.

Drinks

Afternoon Tea is always a celebration, and life is always better with bubbles – and in our experience, adding a glass of Fortnum's Champagne to your table is more than usually a very good idea.

We also serve a selection of cocktails infused with our most popular tea blends, alongside a curated wine list and a collection of no and low-alcohol alternatives – including our Sparkling Tea, an alcohol-free and certified organic blend of eight of our famous and rare brews.
