

WELCOME TO THE PALM COURT

Sir Bracewell Smith is renowned to have built The Park Lane Hotel in 1927. He oversaw some ingenious building techniques, from the groundbreaking internal steel structure of the hotel, nicknamed “the birdcage”, to the state-of-the-art whitening system for the façade.

Step back in history to the Roaring 20s with original Art Deco features & savour our delicious “Queen’s Platinum Jubilee Afternoon Tea” featuring intrinsically designed pastries and delectable savoury treats inspired by the 1920s, with a contemporary twist.

AFTERNOON TEA A Brief History

Afternoon Tea is recognised around the world as a quintessentially British tradition. The exact origins of the Afternoon Tea are unknown, but one lady features predominantly in all theories; born in 1783, Anna, Seventh Duchess of Bedford, lady-in-waiting to Her Majesty, Queen Victoria.

Traditionally, dinner was not served until 8:30pm or 9:00pm in the evening and the Duchess often became hungry, especially in the summer when dinner was served even later. Every afternoon, she experienced a “sinking feeling” and requested sandwiches & cakes between 3pm & 4pm in the afternoon.

Soon others followed the Duchess’ lead. In 1842, a well known actress named Fanny Kemble heard of Afternoon Tea, and began to invite some guests to join her. Soon all of fashionable London was sipping tea with a variety of sandwiches on the side. The custom of “taking tea” in the afternoon had become well established, along with a complex set of rules and etiquette.

Afternoon Tea prices are subject to change for seasonal menus. All prices are inclusive of VAT. A discretionary 12.5% Service charge will be added to your bill. A minimum charge of £42.00 per person will be applied on Friday, Saturday & Sunday between 12:00pm & 7:00pm.

RARE TEA

The Sheraton Grand London Park Lane has partnered with the world award-winning Newby Tea to create our tea selection and a special "1927" blend exclusively for Nineteen Twen-Tea, marking the year the hotel was originally completed.

BLACK TEA

1927

India

Assam is a region of India set upon by monsoons that rage from June to September. This premium blend honours the origins of the world's finest tea. Newby's Assam tea produces a rich amber cup with a nutty aroma and a malty flavour.

Prime Darjeeling

India

Light and complex, our Prime Darjeeling is an award-winning Indian tea which exudes delicate fruit and flower aromas. A distinctive pale amber colour and hints of muscatel grape are some of the characteristics which denote this full-bodied highland tea, plucked with care during the prized second flush.

Royal Zafrani

India

Containing only the finest Kashmiri Gulmarg saffron, Royal Zafrani recalls the days when these sought-after petals were added to tea, concocting a truly indulgent experience. Blended with premium tippy pekoe Assam leaves, this prized saffron produces a bright malty liquor with an intriguing aromatic aftertaste.

GREEN TEA

Supreme Jasmine

China

From the Highlands of China's Fujian Province, this superior spring harvest tea is imbued with the captivating fragrance of the Jasmine flower. Sweet and full-bodied with a floral dimension, this award-winning tea is much prized and noted for its silky, lingering finish.

Special Formosa

Taiwan

In its native Taiwan, this light-green tea is known as Pi Lo Chun, and recognised for its curled jade leaves. The sweet, heady aroma and honeyed taste of our rich Special Formosa are just part of its appeal. This complex tea is commendable for both its floral hints and prolonged finish.
