

Welcome to The Adria's Afternoon Tea experience, where timeless artistry and modern luxury unite in the heart of South Kensington. Within the intimate setting of our 19th-century townhouse, The Adria invites you to pause, indulge, and savour a tradition reimaged.

This season, we are delighted to unveil a captivating new Afternoon Tea collection, presented in collaboration with the Chitra Collection—one of the world's most celebrated private collections of historic teaware—and Newby Teas, renowned for their commitment to preserving the craft of fine tea.

Drawing inspiration from the celestial beauty of the Newby Zodiac Collection, each Afternoon Tea experience includes a tea caddy from this exquisite range, allowing you to take home a piece of the stars. Our menu reflects this astral journey, featuring a constellation of sweet and savoury delights that pay homage to the signs of the zodiac—each bite carefully composed to balance flavour, tradition, and imagination.

Join us at The Adria for an elegant celebration of heritage and harmony, where every cup tells a story, and every tier is a tribute to the heavens above.

Masala Chai

An uplifting blend infused with rich, warming flavours, Masala Chai has long been part of the Indian culinary experience. While many variations exist, with milk and sugar sometimes blended with the black tea, the addition of spices is integral. Made with fresh, locally sourced cinnamon, clove, black pepper, cardamom and ginger, our Masala Chai has an irresistible edge. A dark-amber cup with a fragrant aroma, a sweet, spicy taste and full-bodied finish.
