BLACK TEA

Assam Breakfast

Assam, India

The quintessential 'English Breakfast Tea' experience, this full-bodied, deep-ruby red tea is picked in the short window between spring and the monsoon season so you can enjoy its signature honey, dried fruit and malted taste.

Darjeeling 2nd Flush

Darjeeling, India

Light, highly fragrant, and perfect for afternoon drinking, this tea is the perfect expression of Darjeeling. Lose yourself in its delicate aromas of citrus and hops, with notes of sweet muscatel grape, toasted hay, and hints of alpine flowers.

Red Dragon

Jasmine Silver Needle

Yunnan, China

The delicate process for producing this fine tea unfolds over a brief five-night window. Freshly picked spring tea buds are placed beneath mystical jasmine flowers which bloom only in the cover of darkness, allowing them to absorb their fragrance. The result is a one-of-a-kind white tea, with fresh notes of cucumber and melon that perfectly complement the soothing jasmine notes.

£3 supplement
