Remembering a Historic Victory

Sixty years later after the triumphant England squad of 1966 celebrated at the Royal Garden Hotel, The Beautiful Game Afternoon Tea sweet selection pays tribute to their legacy.

Hat-Trick Hero pays tribute to Sir Geoff Hurst's performance in the 1966 final with a vibrant chocolate, cherry and chilli macaron capturing the excitement and energy of that unforgettable achievement.

The American Dream celebrates the host nations of this summer's championship. A sculpted carrot and maple tart designed in the shape of a stadium, topped with citrus curd and finished with a bespoke emblem of Canada, Mexico and the United States.

Pitch Perfect is a pineapple, mango and pistachio slice, crafted to resemble a football pitch, complete with detailed markings and a handcrafted retro-style chocolate football, inspired by the iconic match ball used in 1966.

Guests will also be served "Pickles", a refreshing palate cleanser that honours Pickles, the dog who famously discovered the stolen Jules Rimet trophy prior to the World Cup in 1966.
