

A watercolor illustration of a garden scene. The background is a light cream color. In the upper left, a portion of a purple and white flower is visible. In the upper right, there are green leaves. The central and lower portions of the image are dominated by several flowers. One large flower in the lower left is in full bloom, showing white petals with a light purple tinge and a green, textured center. To its right and slightly above is a purple flower bud. Below the central flower is another large white flower with a green center. To the right of the central flower is another purple flower bud. In the lower right, there is another white flower with a green center. The overall style is soft and artistic, typical of watercolor painting.
