

THE MILESTONE HOTEL AFTERNOON TEA

MENU

'Tea! Thou soft, thou sober, sage and venerable liquid,
Thou female tongue-running, smile-smoothing,
Heart-opening, wink-tipping cordiale, to whose glorious insipidity owe the happiest moment of my life, let me fall prostrate.'

'The soothing rite that calms the soul, lifts the spirit and makes any afternoon an extraordinary event.'

COLLEY CIBBER: THE LADY'S LAST STAKE, 1708

THE MILESTONE HOTEL AFTERNOON TEA MENU

Afternoon Tea as a specific meal did not evolve until the beginning of the 19th century, although the drink had been popular since its introduction in 1559. Anna, Duchess of Bedford, invented the meal to fill the time between early luncheon and late dinner which she felt proved to be the low point of many a country house party.

As time progressed, it became a meal surrounded by etiquette and very strange customs; silver teapots, delicate china, cake stands, starched napkins, whether to pour the milk before or after the tea?

The heyday of Afternoon Tea was in the days of the British Empire when the 'Sahib' and his family, having taken early luncheon, would have to wait until the cool of the late evening to take dinner. Afternoon Tea once again filled the gap - when they returned home they brought the ceremony back home with them. It was at this point that the fashionable hotels took whole-heartedly to the serving of traditional afternoon and Cornish cream teas.
